

Faculty Promotions

Amounts: Promotion increases can range between the fixed dollar amounts noted below (minimum amount) and a dollar amount equal to no more than ten percent of the faculty member’s base pay.

Funding: For Faculty on 101 funds, central campus will provide funds for one half of the defined minimum increase amount (prorated by portion of FTE being paid on 101 funding).

Effective Date: Faculty promotions are generally effective with the pay period that starts the fiscal year (July A) or the first day of the academic year unless a special exception is made. The actual dates are included in the charts below. To request an exception, please contact your Compensation Administration representative in the Office of Human Resources.
