

Open Enrollment 2027

Enroll in benefits October 5-30, 2026

Benefits Open Enrollment is the only time you can make changes to certain benefits without having an eligible life event (for example, marriage, birth, or divorce) or qualifying employment change during the year. Some benefits require re-enrollment if you wish to continue them into 2027. Changes made during this period will be effective January 1, 2027.

Attend a benefits seminar and learn about your benefits options for 2027

You do not need to register in advance to attend these events. No leave needs to be taken to attend an event. Notify your supervisor if you wish to attend. Review your benefits in Workday.

| In-Person Sessions: At the Employee Benefits and Resource Fair |                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                  |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Located at Union South, 1308 West Dayton Street. English only. |                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Thursday, October 8, 2026                                      | 9:15–10:15 a.m.10:30–11:30 a.m.1:00–2:00 p.m. | Union South, Marquee Theater                                                                                                                                     |
| In-Person Sessions: Multilingual                               |                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Tuesday, October 6, 2026                                       | 9:30–11:00 a.m.                                       | Gordon Dining & Event Center770 West Dayton StreetEnglish, Spanish, Hmong, Tibetan,Chinese, Nepali                                                   |
| Monday, October 12, 2026                                       | 11:00 p.m.–12:30 a.m.                                 | Health Sciences Learning Center (HSLC)750 Highland AvenueEnglish, Spanish, Hmong, Tibetan, Chinese,NepaliFree parking in lots 60, 74, 82, and 64 |
| Virtual Sessions                                               |                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                  |
| All virtual sessions will be held live via Zoom in English.    |                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Wednesday, October 7, 2026                                     | Noon–1:00 p.m.                                        | go.wisc.edu/lzlzjn                                                                                                                                               |
| Monday, October 12, 2026                                       | 2:00–3:00 p.m.                                        | go.wisc.edu/urb3x2                                                                                                                                               |
| Wednesday, October 14, 2026                                    | 5:00–6:00 p.m.                                        | go.wisc.edu/a6565c                                                                                                                                               |
| Thursday, October 15, 2026                                     | 5:00–6:00 p.m.                                        | go.wisc.edu/o0730o                                                                                                                                               |
| Friday, October 16, 2026                                       | 1:00–2:00 p.m.                                        | go.wisc.edu/71d1z2                                                                                                                                               |
| Wednesday, October 21, 2026                                    | 3:00–4:00 p.m.                                        | go.wisc.edu/60n05g                                                                                                                                               |

Learn more at benefits.wisc.edu/2027.

If you have questions about benefits, or if you do not have access to a computer and need help updating your benefits, contact the human resources department in your division or ask your supervisor for assistance.

If you need an accommodation to attend these events, please contact benefits@ohr.wisc.edu, your human resources department, or your supervisor. All accommodation requests should be made no less than two weeks before the event. We will attempt to fulfill requests made after this date, but cannot guarantee they will be met.

