Tips for completing the form

- Complete Sections 1 through 6 of the Request for Leave form as completely as you can.
- Section 2: Reason(s) for Leave Request. You may have more than one reason for requesting leave. Please be sure to check as many as apply.
- Section 3: Leave Type(s) and Anticipated Dates Requesting Leave.
  - Definitions of “continuous leave,” “intermittent leave,” and “reduced work schedule” are provided. If you need help determining which type of leave you are requesting, please contact your DDR.
  - You may be using more than one type of leave, so check as many as apply to your situation.
  - We understand that you may not know the last date you will need leave. Please provide an estimated date for now. This can be adjusted later once your leave needs are clear.
  - For a leave request that begins before May 2 (including a leave that extends beyond May 2), the employee should use the current “Request for Leave under Federal Emergency and/or UW COVID-19 Leave Programs” form. An updated form will be available to use for a leave request that begins on, or after May 2, 2020.
- Section 4: Information and Documentation Required.
  - Please note that some reasons for leave require documentation. Depending on your reason(s) for leave, documentation may be required from your health care provider, the health care provider of an individual you are caring for, or both.
  - You do not need to visit your health care provider to request documentation. You can request documentation by phone, email, or virtual appointment, or you can take a screenshot of your online health chart.
You may submit the documentation with your form or submit it separately. If your reason(s) for leave require you to submit documentation, you must submit that documentation no more than 15 calendar days after your first day of requested leave. Contact your DDR with any questions.

- Section 5: Pay during Leave.
  - UW–Madison COVID-19 leave is available until May 1, 2020. After May 1, 2020, you may not receive your full pay during your leave. Use this section to indicate your understanding that the amount of leave you receive under the federal emergency programs may not represent your full pay, and tell us what you like to do in that situation. Check as many as apply.
  - If you have exhausted your paid leave entitlement under the provisions of FFCRA by May 1, 2020, you will not receive any additional paid leave under FFCRA.
  - You can check your accrued leave balances through MyUW or ask your local HR contact for assistance.

- Section 6: Signatures. If you are completing the form electronically, an electronic signature will be accepted (just type in your name). This form and your signature help UW–Madison meet the requirements of the Federal emergency leave programs under the Families First Coronavirus Response act (FFCRA).

Please see the next two pages for an overview of the federal Families First Coronavirus Response Act (“FFCRA”) and the UW–Madison COVID-19 Pandemic Employee Work Location and Leave Policy.

You may find the background information that follows helpful, but you are not required to review it. No additional action is required other than completing the Request for Leave under Federal Emergency and/or UW COVID-19 Leave Programs (using the instructions above) and providing any documentation that is required based on your reason for leave.

If you have any questions or need assistance, contact your DDR.
Background Information

Reason(s) for Leave Requests and Pay Details

The federal emergency leave programs under the Families First Coronavirus Response Act ("FFCRA") and the UW–Madison COVID-19 Pandemic Employee Work Location and Leave Policy ("UW COVID-19 leave") are different programs that are running at the same time until May 1, 2020. UW COVID-19 leave is available to employees who qualify until May 1, 2020. The federal programs continue until December 31, 2020.

If you qualify for leave, your reason(s) for leave may be covered under both programs, or only under one program or the other. Your DDR will use the information you provide to determine which leave program(s) you qualify for. If you qualify for more than one federal leave program, your DDR will choose the leave program that gives you the greatest benefit.

There are two different federal programs providing paid leave under the FFCRA:
- Emergency Paid Sick Leave Act ("EPSLA")
- Emergency Family & Medical Leave Expansion ("EFMLEA")

EFMLEA

To care for the employee’s son or daughter, who is under 18, if the school the child attends is closed or if daycare is unavailable due to COVID-19 precautions.

EFMLEA provides ONE additional qualifying reason for an employee to take leave under the federal FMLA.

The existing federal FMLA allows up to 12 weeks of leave (pro-rated for part-time employees) in a calendar year for University staff and in the fiscal year for FAASLI staff.

EFMLEA does not provide an additional 12 weeks of FMLA. (Section 2.5 on Request for Leave form)
